

Montrose Air Quality Services
Part Time Field Technician for Air Quality Monitoring Station

A premier environmental services company seeks a highly reliable part time field technician for steady work (Approx. 7 Hrs./Wk.) to operate and maintain an air quality monitoring station in Osceola AR. Work hours are flexible. Responsibilities include sample collection and shipping, QC checks, calibrating and maintaining sophisticated air monitoring instruments. Local training and tools provided. Applicant must pass drug, alcohol and background checks, have good computer, electronic and writing skills, cell phone, email and reliable personal transportation. A science degree in electronics/instrumentation is preferred or equivalent work experience. Successful candidate must be highly reliable, and attentive to detail. Good hourly pay and mileage expenses reimbursed. Please forward resume and professional references to: Dave Cummings at dcummings@montrose-env.com.