

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Vice President for Instruction (Anticipated Opening)

The Arkansas Northeastern College (ANC) is a state-supported, comprehensive two-year institution. The main campus is located in Blytheville, Arkansas, which is approximately 70 miles north of Memphis. ANC serves approximately 2,300 students annually, with a combination of 49 full-time and 23 part-time faculty. ANC is nationally recognized leader in workforce development, particularly customized training for manufacturing and working with underserved communities.

ANC is announcing its initial search for the position of Vice President for Instruction. The College is seeking an innovative and enthusiastic individual, well-respected by peers and community leaders, who is committed to academic quality, student success, and the maintenance of a learning environment in meeting the College's comprehensive mission.

The Vice President for Instruction is the College's chief academic officer and reports directly to the President. The Vice President has leadership of and responsibility for the total College instructional program and services. Additionally, the Vice President oversees learning resources, instructional support services, and college-wide or program specific accreditation. The Vice President is responsible for the total academic budget of the College and for the recruitment, employment/retention, development, supervision and evaluation of all faculty and support staff employed to deliver comprehensive instructional services for the College.
