Juxtapositions: An Art Exhibition from Dustin Kemper

Dustin Kemper is an Associate Professor of History at Arkansas Northeastern College. His work is a satirical blend of the absurd, weird, and horrific. It features figures, images, and ideas from politics, pop culture, and his daily life remixed in strange and (hopefully) amusing combinations.

Lifeline Student Outreach Club

The ANC Lifeline Outreach Club supported breast cancer awareness month and the fight against breast cancer by hosting an event in the Sunshine Grille, wearing pink, and honoring loved ones by writing names or a short message on a ribbon for the #IPinkICanWall

Associate Degree Student Nurse Club

The Associate Degree Student Nurse Club participated in making Halloween bags for the children at Le Bonheur Children's Hospital. The students hope that these bags will help brighten the day of some sick children. Both first and second year ADN students contributed to this project. They went above and beyond on these! They made some bags that had candy and small toys and also made some bags that just had toy type items for those children who were not able to have anything to eat.

The students really participated in this project and we are very proud of their efforts. There were many bags that were made and these will be taken to Le Bonheur Children's Hospital tomorrow when the second level students go to do a tour. Dr. Kim Weathers, DNP, MSN, RN and Shauna Winchester, MSN, RN are the sponsors for the ADN Student Nurse Club.

Notes of Thanks

To My ANC Friends,

It is so easy to feel unsure and inadequate when a "wake-up call" comes. However, you have encouraged me to believe in myself and to believe in healing. Your concern, prayers, and support added to the concern, prayers, and support of others have overwhelmed me. Though I will continue to wonder what I have done to deserve these special gifts, may I thank you now for celebrating the most recent challenges in my life. You are so special...I love you.

Barbara Cox

Thank you for the beautiful flowers you sent for Dick's funeral. Dick had a heart for ANC and what it means for Blytheville. Our family appreciates your thoughtfulness.
